To whom it may concern

Dear Madam or Sir,

It was with great pleasure that the Orchestre symphonique de Québec welcomed the "Symphonic Vikings" show in the course of its 2014-2015 season, namely for a Family concert on Sunday, November 2, 2014 as well as for three performances intended for primary and secondary schools on November 3 and 4, 2014. Sales for these shows went very well and we were very happy with the results. Perfectly adapted to young audiences, aptly taking on the theme of bullying, and supported by symphonic arrangements of music that is ideal for the subject matter, "Symphonic Vikings" proves to be an energetic, funny and touching show that would deserve to be presented repeatedly throughout Canada. Resting on the presence of excellent actor-musicians, this show is a wonderful success and is backed by a solid team of professionals. It is therefore a very good young-audience production that allows youths to effortlessly come into contact with a symphony orchestra and the world of classical music through issues to which they can relate.
